Drinks Receptions & Dining at Kilronan Castle

Douglas Hyde Restaurant

The Douglas Hyde Restaurant, named after the first President of Ireland, who was born in Castlerea, County Roscommon, offers an elegant, fine dining experience which is unique to the region. Table D'Hote & A la Carte Menus are available. The Douglas Hyde Restaurant is the proud holder of a 2 AA Rosette Award, David Porter, Executive Head Chef, and his team are extremely focused and work consistently to create seasonal menus using organic and locally sourced produce from our region.

The Dungeon Bar

Whether you come for banter or the occasional tall story, the Dungeon Bar sets the right scene. Rich imagery of ancestral faces, luxurious leather chesterfield couches and historical artifacts firmly establish this area as a favorite for guests to spend an afternoon or evening, particularly for a group get together. Over the years this elegant & stylish bar has been a meeting point for politicians, journalists, sportsmen, TV celebrities and local personalities. Pull up a stool and soak up the truly unique castle atmosphere or even enjoy a BBQ or Buffet on our Lake Terrace over looking the shores of Lough Meelagh

The Drawing Room & Palm Court

The Drawing Room is our main reception room and is worthy of its name. It features an impressive floor to ceiling bay window with uninterrupted views of Lough Meelagh and is a wonderful area to relax in especially beside the enormous Inglenook fireplace, itself a renowned architectural feature of Kilronan Castle. The Palm Court is positioned in the center of our Castle, with high ceilings drawing in an abundance of natural light, this room is ideal for pre-dinner gatherings and drinks receptions.

Traditional Afternoon Tea is served in both locations along with a full bar menu daily.

Gala Dinners in The Grand Ballroom

Perfect for a grand affair, The Grand Ballroom at Kiltonan Castle can cater for 400 people while providing exquisite décor that sets a tone of opulence underneath magnificent chandeliers.

The Spa & Wellness Center

The luxury Spa & Wellness Centre features a 14.5m swimming pool, state of the art gym and fitness suite, sauna, steam room and jacuzzi all of which are available for residents to use with our compliments. The spa at Kilronan Castle offers ten stylish treatment rooms, manicure & pedicure area, rasul, relaxation and thermal suite including aroma & light therapy steam room, sauna, hydrotherapy showers and ice fountain. Along with excellent therapies and products including Elemis, Carita & Décléor. The Spa at Kilronan Castle is designed to treat and pamper, transcending you into a world of escapism.
